Silence is Golden on Lazy Acres - $465000

If you love the idea of your own beautiful tropical paradise with total privacy, a superbly presented spacious home where you can lounge next to the pool while your hubby slaves away on his dream projects in the best sheds (not just one) in Townsville, then come and check out this one.

The house has a massive living and dining area, sweet breakfast room and heavenly kitchen with serene garden views on every side. Everything is air conditioned with all three bedrooms tastefully decorated and with built in robes and the same gorgeous, civilised, cultivated jungle views all around. Next to the pool is where all the good living gets done on the tiled, private, cool and shady patio.

The sheds, machinery bay and extensive car parking areas will swallow everything from caravans to Sherman tanks. In fact, one of the sheds is almost a Granny Flat. You can go for your very own private bush walks in this beautifully established botanic paradise.
