A beautiful quality built family home with a definite “Feel like New” presence with everything you will ever need to live, shop, play and grow. North Shore is Townsville's favourite master planned community and a place you will be proud to call home. Community is the life and soul of North Shore, with a focus on active outdoor living, education, environment, health, social clubs and regular events for the whole family. With 40 per cent of North Shore dedicated to natural space, every home is no more than 200 metres from parkland. Breathe in the fresh air, with 42km of walking trails and a 6km green spine parkland corridor connecting residents to each village and the thriving North Shore town centre.
