SOLD BY STAN POLITANSKI

This stunning home has it all, especially at this price. It would suit someone that is thinking of building brand new, but without the hassle of building, design and the time frame involved, and at a much lower price than building. The design of this house and land has the family in mind, the land is very high & dry and the property faces open space land that's conveniently across the road. The area has a more traditional feel about it have wide areas and housing is further apart.

The property has a large back yard with double gate side access from a second street.

This location has advantages such as its very close by to Bunnings, private and government schools to choose from, Woolworths, Grammar School & other schools, Pool, Doctors, coffee shop etc. Quiet Residential location with no through traffic.
